FY 24 BUDGET PROJECTIONS

February 26, 2024

PROJECTIONS IMPROVE SLIGHTLY OVERALL

The Office of Fiscal Analysis projects operating surpluses within the General and Special Transportation funds of $161.4 million and $246.3 million, respectively. Relative to last month's projections, the projected operating surplus in the General Fund has increased by $12.6 million and the projected operating surplus in the Special Transportation Fund has decreased by $3.2 million. Updated expenditure projections represent the entirety of this month's changes to our projections.

In the General Fund, the largest single adjustment is a $6 million reduction to the Magnet Schools line-item expenditure projection within the State Department of Education; enrollment has increased by only 0.3% this fiscal year, which is less than planned in the budget. A net reduction of $4.75 million to expenditure projections of several line-items within the Workers' Compensation Claims division of the Department of Administrative Services reflects ongoing claims trends across various state agencies. Other updates to expenditure projections within the General Fund yield a $1.85 million total (net) reduction to this month's expenditure projections.

In the Special Transportation Fund, technical updates to fringe benefits projections make up the entirety of the $3.2 million increased expenditure projection this month.

While no revenue adjustments are made in this month's projection, OFA continues to monitor closely ongoing trends and will update accordingly. In particular, the impact of recently effective income tax cuts and demonstrated weakness within the sales and use tax are significant topics.

Uncertainty within the pass-through entity tax and estimated and finals portion of the personal income tax poses a potentially negative and significant risk to revenue projections. However, this risk is likely restricted to the volatility adjustment transfer to the Budget Reserve Fund and unlikely to impact General Fund budgeted revenues.
