

Multilingual Learner Parent Bill of Rights

Note: If you are struggling to access any of these rights, please contact your student's school.

Right to enroll your student in public school

- Regardless of your student's immigration status, and without providing documentation or proof of citizenship.

Right to be involved in your student's education

This includes:

- Information about your student's progress in your native language
- Translation services during critical meetings with your student's teachers and administrators
- Written notice and an orientation in your native language if your student is eligible for a bilingual education program

Right for your student to experience the same high-quality education as their non-multilingual learner peers

This includes:

- Grade-level programming and core subjects
- Support services
- Enrolling in a bilingual education or English as a new language program

Questions about your rights as the parent of a multilingual learner?
Need help finding someone's contact information?

Please email us at info@schoolstatefinance.org and we'd be more than happy to guide you in the right direction!

